

Ride on the Wild Side...

An outback horse campout experience!

This is a true North American safari on the Wild West side of Prince Albert National Park. In addition to the free-range bison you will almost certainly see, you may also encounter wolves, elk, moose, deer, bear and countless birds and waterfowl. Learn to live with the land, with the assurance that supper is always waiting for you back at camp!

Spend four days and three nights on the amazing Wild West side of Prince Albert National Park in Saskatchewan. You will see Canada's only free-ranging herd of plains bison which still lives within its historic range, visit rare fescue prairie grass islands surrounded by dense forest, and enjoy beautiful vistas along several rivers, streams, lakes and valleys.

This very special experience begins when you arrive at Saskatoon's Diefenbaker Airport, pick up your well-appointed rental car, and check into the Hilton Garden Inn downtown. It's time to unrumple your travelling feathers and relax; you are in the heart of Saskatoon's downtown restaurant scene, so catch a great meal and maybe even take a scenic river cruise on the riverboat Meewasin Queen.

The next morning you will take a relaxed drive up Highways 11, 12 and 55. It's about a three-hour drive, but we suggest you might want to take extra time to make some interesting stops along the way. Among others, the Petrofka Bridge Orchard (near Blaine Lake) and Honeywood Nurseries (near Parkside) are fascinating and unexpected spots to spend at least an hour.

You will arrive at Ness Creek in the late afternoon and meet your horse (and the Sturgeon River Ranch cowboys and cowgirls!) You'll be spending the night in one of the cozy Ness Creek cabins.

On the next morning, we'll be heading out to the Sturgeon River Ranch cattle range. Lunch will be provided at Moonlight Lake, there'll be time for a quick dip in beautiful, sandy Ness Lake, then it's over to Tie Lake, where we will catch our supper and make camp on the shores of this beautiful northern lake.

Next day, we will ride east to Webb Meadows, where we enter Prince Albert National Park and head south along the West Side Trail to Sturgeon Crossing Station, then into Amyot Meadow for the night. After visiting Amyot Lake and Long Meadow, in the heart of the bison range, we head south on the Rabbit Trail to the old Rabbit Cabin Warden Station where we make camp along Rabbit Creek.

On the last day on the trail, we head west to Wasstrom Flats and the rare fescue grasslands then ride north to Sturgeon Lookout, Jonasson Flats, and on to the Sturgeon River Main Ranch on the picturesque Valleyview Trail. We'll tour the main ranch, finish off with a dip in the hot tub, a nice fire and stories of the trip.

Then let us drive you back to Ness Creek for a well deserved rest in your cabin. After sleeping in the next morning, you can enjoy a nice relaxed brunch where we can all reminisce as we say our goodbyes before you head back to Saskatoon and a chance to get out on the town from your room at the Hilton Garden Inn.
